

AMG Sounds Gong to Celebrate Winning “All Round Best Performer of 2017”

Dr. Heinz Schimmelbusch, CEO of AMG, celebrates the winning of the “All Round Best Performer of 2017” on the Euronext Amsterdam with the sound of the gong.

AMG opened the trading day in Amsterdam on March 6th, 2018 by sounding the gong, celebrating the recognition of its 2017 performance on the stock exchange.

AMG received the “All Round Best Performer of 2017” from Euronext Amsterdam on January 12th, 2018. The Euronext award is based exclusively on measureable data, where performance is determined by the change in market capitalization over the calendar year.

In 2017, AMG's market capitalization increased by 201%, driven by the continuing development of the company's lithium project, communication of the company's new strategic framework and the company's strong financial performance.
